Agency/Company: Monkeynastix

Location: Location varies throughout Calgary and travel is required

Terms Available: Fall, Winter or Spring

Specified Schedule: Within morning and afternoon on weekdays

Project Duties/Responsibilities:

Monkeynastix provides fun and challenging physical literacy lessons at preschools, daycares and after school programs around Calgary. The program is mobile and brings its own specialized equipment, music and unique lesson plans directly to the schools. As a Monkeynastix Assistant Instructor, it is your responsibility to uphold a fun, positive, and professional attitude alongside the Lead Instructor.

Before class: Arrive no later than 15 minutes before the class starts to assist the Lead Instructor with getting all of the equipment for the class ready and help set it up if necessary and review the lesson plan with the instructor.

During class:
- Help the children if necessary; if none of the children need assistance, you are to fully participate next to the Lead.
- Spot the children, ensuring safe and correct execution of movements; help any of the children who are struggling and show them the proper form. Have them imitate you until they master it!
  - The circuit involves a gross motor station related to the fundamental movement skill for that specific lesson as well as numerous related substations such as tuck jumps over hurdles, star jumps on a spot; using a balance disk, using arm elastics and performing stork stands or crab walking.
- Be actively involved in the sport coaching. Correct racquet/stick grip & strike, throwing posture and follow through, co-ordination & balance, kicking movements and follow through, catching position, etc.
- Investigate three new, fun and engaging activities that could be incorporated into the Monkeynastix program in order to increase fundamental movement skills and eventually introduce more complex skills.
- Create a 3-page report and submit to on-site supervisor by the end of the term. Each page will provide an overview of the new exercise or game (including a visual) and a summary of how this exercise or game would be beneficial in terms of developing physical literacy skills in the children.
